DEFINE TASKS OF CZECH COMMUNAL ENTERPRISES

The responsibilities of Czechoslovak communal enterprises were discussed by a representative of the Ministry of the Interior at a meeting of planning and economic referents of the Kraj National Committees held on 20 April 1950.

It has been decided that communal enterprises will be concerned with activity of local significance. Their principal activity will be in these areas:

- 1. Normal communal services, such as waterworks, sewage disposal, street cleaning, baths and spas, funeral enterprises, etc.
 - 2. Urban transportation, construction and maintenance of streets and squares.
 - 3. Apartment houses, hotels, inns, restaurants, cafes, etc.
 - 4. Construction enterprises.
 - 5. Small service enterprises.
 - 6. Repair and maintenance enterprises.
- 7. Trades production of fruit, vegetables, flowers; nurseries, collection of forest products.
 - 8. Industrial and trades production which assists the above activities.

The first four activities are to be carried out almost exclusively by the communal enterprises, while the other activities are to be undertaken in collaboration with the cooperatives.

Activity No 8 above indicates a change in procedure. It was originally thought that the communal enterprises were to organize all small trades enterprises. From now on, those private enterprises which are to be organized into larger enterprises will not be handled by the communal enterprises unless they are necessary to the first seven outlined activities.
